

Sworn statement

Considering order number 2020-351 of March 27, 2020, relating to the organization of examinations and competitions during the health crisis arising from the epidemic of covid-19, and considering order of October 27, 2020, (partial or total) remote thesis defenses are currently authorized.

All the members of the jury can participate in the defense by videoconference or electronic communication tools allowing their identification and their effective participation in a collegial deliberation and satisfying the technical characteristics guaranteeing the continuous and simultaneous transmission of the debates.

Each member of the jury must ensure that the discussions during the appointment of the President and during the deliberation are confidential. In addition, he must be placed in an isolated space and possibly equip himself with devices (headphones, cover, etc.) guaranteeing confidentiality.

I, the undersigned, _____

member of the jury by videoconference of

NAME and first name of the candidate: _____

Date and time of defense: _____

declare on my word of honor to have noted the conditions of the defense by videoconference and delegate of signing the president of the jury to sign on my behalf the following documents relating to the defense, namely:
