The screenshot shows the Altair University homepage with a navigation bar at the top: NEWS, SIMULATION, LEARNING, CONTESTS, EVENTS, OPPORTUNITIES, and SUPPORT FORUM. Below the navigation bar, a large banner for "Free HyperWorks 13.0 Student Edition" is displayed. The banner features three images: a wireframe model, a flow simulation, and a surface plot. To the right of these images are three buttons: "Overview", "Order Now", and "Learning". Below the banner, a quote from Dr. Wei Chen is shown: "It is exciting news that the student version of HyperWorks is now available. This program truly demonstrates Altair's commitment to enhancing students' learning experience outside the classroom so that they can reinforce their engineering knowledge and classroom instruction." A link to view the page in Japanese is also present.
